SOTERA COMPLETES THE ACQUISITION OF SOFTWARE PROCESS TECHNOLOGIES, INC.

MCLEAN, Va., September 22, 2011 – Sotera Defense Solutions (Sotera), a provider of mission-critical, technology-based systems, solutions and services for national security agencies and programs of the U.S. government, today announced that the company has completed the acquisition of Software Process Technologies, Inc. (SPT). SPT delivers a range of mission-focused, specialized software engineering capabilities to support the cyber intelligence missions of its customers.

John Hillen, Sotera President & CEO commented, “This business combination underscores a key element of Sotera’s business strategy to become a leading mission partner supporting our customers’ critical needs in the cyber intelligence and cyber operations areas. Adding SPT to our team doubles our presence in the Ft. Meade area and we look forward to leveraging our expanded capabilities to provide even greater support to our existing and future customers.”

Based in Columbia, Maryland, SPT has grown rapidly since its inception in 1997 and today employs approximately 140 professionals in the Ft. Meade, Maryland area. The company expects to generate approximately $35 million in 2011 revenue and its outstanding financial performance is driven by its unique solutions focus, leading edge technical expertise and direct exposure to programs addressing the pressing cyber security mission requirements of the Intelligence Community.

Christine Dockstader, SPT Founder, President & CEO shared her thoughts on the acquisition, “We are pleased to join Sotera, a company that is truly dedicated and responsive to the critical missions of its national security customers. By being part of the Sotera team we can combine capabilities in cyber intelligence, cyber operations, counterterrorism and C4ISR to offer even greater support to our customers and expanded opportunities for our employees.”

SPT will now be known as Software Process Technologies, a Sotera Defense Solutions Company and will be led by Ms. Dockstader.

Terms of the deal were not disclosed.
